

 P R O F I L E

Intrinsyc Software Inc.

Who: Vancouver-based Intrinsyc is a software solutions provider building its future on the growth of information appliances, joining other Vancouver companies that putting this city on the map in the world of wireless computing.

What: Intrinsyc's solutions are the ones you don't see — solutions that enable developers to create applications for such leading edge technology as information appliances, smart devices and embedded systems. Most recently it joined fellow B.C. companies, Sierra Wireless and Infowave, at Microsoft's announcement of its new pocket PCs. Intrinsyc provides the solutions for creating, managing and linking Internet devices and information appliances — making them a company to watch as mobile computing takes over.

Coordinates: www.intrinsyc.com

How many employees: 48 and growing

Mission statement:

Solutions for creating, managing and linking Internet devices